

Do you have a message to share? Become a SAGE Speaker

Some of us would rather face real danger than get up and speak in front of a group. But if you're that type of person who loves to share your energy and goodwill with a group, being a SAGE Speaker is for you.

SAGE inspires people over 50 to give forward with their time, money, and voice, so that younger and future generations can thrive. As one of our Speakers, you help us inspire more people to give forward!

Why serve as a SAGE Speaker?

- Speakers play a pivotal role in helping SAGE build a community of advocates dedicated to creating opportunities for tomorrow.
- We'll supply you with all you need to know to inspire your crowd, including toolkits, slides, and handouts.
- You can lead or co-lead one or more informal or formal talks. These talks can be in-person, online, or hybrid events too.
 - ✓ Very flexible time commitment. We lead events at almost any time and place. The audience, timing and venue for our talks depend on our hosts interests and needs. We also ask volunteers to complete a background check too.
- Together, we can inspire people to apply their experience, wisdom, and resources to strengthen our communities.

Examples of Programs you could lead or co-facilitate

- Socials and Lunch & Learns (1-2 hours). Spark conversations about challenges faced by younger and future generations, and ways to make a difference. Highlight volunteer roles with nonprofits that promote education, environmental protection, and economic opportunity.
- Generational Jeopardy (1 hour). Lead a fun, interactive game on educational, environmental, and economic challenges faced by the future.
- Civic Engagement Workshop (2 hours). Help people create an action plan to clarify or affirm how they can be effective. Share examples of service and advocacy roles.
- Giving Forward Workshop (3 hours). Share five strategies to give, serve, and advocate for future generations, and help attendees create an action plan to
